CLASS SONG
"TODAY"

Chorus:

Today is the day
That we'll leave Jackson High
We'll bid our fond partings
We'll say our good-byes
A million tomorrows
Shall all pass away
Ere we forget all the joy
That we've shared today.

Verses:

We'll ne'er forget you
Our friends and our teachers
We'll always remember
The times we have shared
Though time keeps on passing
And we'll face our future
We'll always remember you cared.

Years will not banish
These days of our glory
The triumphs, the sorrows
We cannot deny
Our hearts will be heavy
With sorrows of leaving
But we know
We must say good-bye

Teacher: "Buster Brown, I've had to scold you every day this week. Have you anything to say for yourself?"
Buster Brown: (With a sigh) "I'm sure glad it's Friday."

Teacher: "What does Brazil produce more of than any other country?"
Stan: (Quick as a flash) "Brazilians!

Teacher: "Sam, when was Rome built?"
Dave: "It was built during the night."
Teacher: "The night! where did you ever get such an idea?"
Dave: "Well, everybody knows that Rome wasn't built in a day."

Inside Story

The class was having a composition lesson.
"Do not imitate what other people write," The teacher said. "Simply be yourself and write what is in you." Following this advice, Tommy Wise turned in the following composition; "We should not imitate others. We should write what is in us. In me there is my stomach, heart, liver, two apples, one piece of pie and my lunch."

Our annual is a great invention,
Ja-CE-Hi gets all the fame,
The printers get all the money,
And the staff gets all the blame.

If you think the world is all wrong remember it contains people like you.

If this is preparing for the future, who wants it?

The class was visiting a western museum. Wally, who had once ridden a horse, was showing off his superior knowledge. "See that long rope hanging from the cowboy's saddle?" he said to Daisy. "The cowboy uses that to catch cows."

"Oh, really," said Daisy, greatly impressed. "And what does he use for bait?"

WImmen: Life isn't fair to men. When we're born our mothers get the compliments and flowers. When we're married our brides get the presents. And when we die, our wives get the insurance.

DIED LAUGHING

It wasn't the blues that killed poor Bill.
It wasn't the lack of breath.
It was a fly that crawled up his nose,
And tickled poor Bill to death.

Dick: "What's that gurgling noise I hear?"
Joan: "That's me, trying to swallow your line."

Susan: "Men are all alike."

Josophine: "Yeah, men are all I like, too."

Sue Smith had a terrible headache, so she decided to go to the doctor. She was admitted into the doctor's office, and she said, "Doctor, I have a terrible headache!"

The doctor said, "Been staying out too late?"

"Oh, no!" said Sue.

"Been smoking?" He asked.

"Oh, no!" repeated Sue.

"Been out with boys too often?" he queried.

"Oh, no!" Sue said again.

"Well, young lady," the doctor sighed, "the only thing wrong that I can see is that your halo is too tight."
